

Privacy Statement

Protecting your privacy is one of our primary goals.

Through the course of conducting regular business we may collect nonpublic personal information from various sources. These sources may include but are not limited to:

- Information reported by you on applications or other forms you provide to us.
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others.

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers or former customers to anyone, except as permitted by law. Any nonpublic information shared is solely to service our client accounts. This information includes data the firm receives from clients on applications (name, social security number, address, assets, etc.)

We may disclose nonpublic personal information to affiliated or nonaffiliated third parties. We may share any of the information that we collect as described above. We may disclose nonpublic personal information about you to the following types of affiliated or nonaffiliated third parties:

Financial service providers such as broker dealers, insurance companies or mortgage brokers.

Safeguarding of information and data

Hoosier Financial will internally safeguard your nonpublic personal information and data by restricting access to only those employees who provide services to you or those who need access to your information to service your account. In addition, we will maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that meet federal and/or state standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

Please direct questions or concerns to:

Chief Compliance Officer
Hoosier Financial Inc.
5015 W. St. Rd. 46
Suite C
Bloomington, IN 47403